

Celebrate Giving from the Heart for 35 Years with CCI

2010 Human Race
May 8, 2010
Herbert Slater Middle School, 8am

Your generous donation will help Canine Companions continue to change lives with every assistance dog placed. For someone who once depended on others to open doors or pick up dropped items, the Service Dog provides independence. Hearing Dogs alert their partners to sounds such as a knock on the door or the warning of a smoke alarm. For a child in a wheelchair, who feels self-conscious in public, the Skilled Companion Dog provides unconditional love, creating a bond of companionship. Our fourth type of assistance dog, the Facility Dog, provides comfort and motivation in hospitals and special education settings.
